STYLE SHOW SCORES ARTISTIC TRIUMPH AT RIVOLI THEATRE

First Spring Revue Staged by Merchants Entertains Packed House Monday

BEAUTIFUL GOWNS FEATURED IN AN ARTISTIC SETTING

Music and Dances Mark Program to be Changed Each Night

CROWDS filled the lobby of the Rivoli theater and jammed against the doors many minutes before the opening hour last night. They watched with positive anticipation a thoroughly entertaining picture, "Saturday Night," and waited for the style show to begin. Much later in the evening two young women were riding home on the street car.

"I'd like that brown and tan afternoon dress," murmured the lady in the next seat.

"You'd look well in that brown beaded dinner frock too," said her friend.

"Then I'd take a blue tulle dress like that very tailored box coat model—and do you remember that gorgeous yellow outfit with a hat that matched—wasn't my size but I'm certainly keen about it. For morning I could use that brown skirt and ponceau blouse and the little brown sailor. Then I'd like to have the riding habit with the red hat. What would you use it for if you don't ride?" she continued without waiting for a solution to the difficulty.

"And shoes! I'll take some grey suedes with patent leather and some brown sport oxfords and—well, I guess I'd have to try those on anyway. But I'd want at least four more hats. I want one dramatic, and a silver mesh bag. And I believe I'd like to have the black evening gown with the coral fan and that blue party dress—"

"Is there anything you don't want except a gentleman's dress suit?" inquired the patient friend with some sarcasm.

The covetous one was unoffended. "We'll have to have the dress suits—oh, filled, of course—or what would be the use of those evening frocks?"

Decorations Beautiful

On the black curtains which formed the center back of the stage against which the varied show of costumes was presented was a great question mark done in flowers supposedly suggesting the eternal feminine clothes question. It might better punctuate the sentence, "Why shop in La Crosse?" The answers passed throughout the evening in review beneath its significant query and among the throng of suits, hats, shoes and gowns that made reply the audience found very nearly as many favorites as there were costumes shown.

From the stage arranged with the striking simplicity of a poster the models displayed to the promenades and through a garden of spring flowers passed with graceful step before the audience. The merchants exhibited were very fortunate in the models secured since the manner in which the clothes were worn added much to their already multiple attractions. The models were as follows: For Baron's, Misses Fay Hezge, Emma Donauder, Wilfred Engelstrom and Viola Dunn. For Burrows: The Misses Edna Scamlen, Lillian Lundy, Meta Arden and Emma Kiebusch. For Decker: The Misses Sarah Groves, Marie Groves, Francis M. Daly, Mrs.

MOSCOW.—By The Associated Press.—Premier Lenine, discounting recent reports of his illness, appeared before a secret meeting of the all-Russian communist congress, and spoke two hours, according to Tuesday's accounts of the meeting, which was held in the Kremlin palace.

"You must be parsons of industry," he declared.

Administration managers expect to see it ratified by an almost unanimous vote by the end of the week.

SANDY GRANT UP IN COUNTY COURT GAMBLING CHARGE

Says He is Not Going to be Double Crossed and Pleads Not Guilty

WEAVER CHECK DEAL LEADS TO ARREST OF LOCAL MAN

Will Have Hearing in County Court Friday Afternoon

S. W. (Sandy) Grant was arraigned before County Judge Brindley late Monday afternoon on charges of gambling and permitting gambling on premises controlled by him. He pleaded not guilty and the hearing was adjourned until March 31, at 2 p. m.

The complaint was sworn to by District Attorney Reid and was served by Undersheriff Lund. Reid made the complaint "on oath that he is credibly informed and verily believes that on March 31, 1922, S. W. Grant did wager certain money in a game played with cards and that he knowingly permitted cards to be used for gambling purposes on premises under his control." Grant operated a cigar store in what was formerly the Lotus cafe annex, 124 South Third street.

No Bail Required

Grant was not required to furnish bail, being released on his own recognizance.

On Wednesday of last week, the Winona papers printed a story to the effect that District Attorney Reid and Detective Fitzsimmons went to Winona in quest of Pete Weaver. It was said that they wanted Weaver to make good on some checks he had passed in La Crosse, which a Winona bank had returned marked "stop payment."

Chief Ribben of Winona was quoted as saying that Weaver had told him he was playing a friendly game of cards and had a few drinks. Following the drinks, which were "topped," according to Weaver's story to Chief Ribben, he was "kicked." The papers quoted Detective Fitzsimmons as saying that Weaver's checks amounted to $400. Neither Reid nor Fitzsimmons had a warrant for Weaver's arrest but Weaver was released by the Winona police after he had made a satisfactory settlement, whereby he turned $150 over to Reid and Fitzsimmons. After their return to La Crosse Detective Fitzsimmons said the checks had been cashed by Sandy Grant.

In county court Monday, when Judge Brindley asked Grant whether he pleaded guilty or not guilty, Grant said:

"I am going to plead not guilty. I am not going to be double-crossed by a half dozen fellows. I had straight business dealings with that man and he paid me those checks."

CRY OF "PORK" HEARD IN HOUSE ARMY BILL ROW

House Votes Increased Appropriation of Fifteen Millions for River and Harbor Improvements

ACTION TAKEN OVER PROTEST OF APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE

Opponents Charge House Has Cut Nation's Defense Funds to Swell Pork Barrel

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Having reduced the size of the army in the name of economy, the house Monday voted to appropriate $15,000,000 more for river and harbor developments than the appropriations committee deemed justified.

In overruling the appropriations committee the house also delivered a wallop at the new budget system under which the administration is endeavoring to hold down expenditures to the amounts recommended by Director Dawes.

Mann Favors the Boost

Incidentally, the Republicans split over the proceeding and Majority Leader Mondell (Wyo.) who led the fight to confine the river and harbor appropriation to the $27,000,000 recommended by the committee was bowled over in the parliamentary fray by former Republican leader James R. Mann (Ill.) who championed the boost to $42,000,000.

After hours of wrangling, in which Mondell was supported by the appropriations committee and Mann by the river and harbor committee, the house voted, 158 to 54, for the $15,000,000 increase. In sharp contrast was the action of the house last week in rejecting the plea of the military affairs committee for any army of 145,000 and accepting the appropriations committee's maximum of 115,000.

Mann Explains the Boost

Opponents of the move to boost the river and harbor appropriation which will be distributed in many congressional districts charged that the house "had curtailed national defense in order to swell the size of the pork barrel." Mr. Mann vigorously repudiated such insinuations, stressing the necessity of developments of waterways to meet the transportation needs of the country.

When it was contended that the $15,000,000 boost would be a repudiation of the budget system Mr. Lindeberger (Cal.) exclaimed:

"The house last week passed a bill for a $4,000,000,000 soldiers' bonus not provided for in the estimates of the budget director, and it is preparing to vote millions for good roads, in addition."

Mr. Mann said he was glad the house had ignored the recommendation of the budget director on some propositions.

DEFENDS ACTION

"I have not resigned my membership in this house," he added, "and I have not resigned my responsibility. I never knew the recommendations of the budget director were considered binding upon the house."

Mr. Burton (O.) took a leading part in the unsuccessful fight to hold the river and harbor appropriations for the next year to $27,000,000. He contended that large lump sums appropriations, such as that of $42,000,000, should not be made, but that rivers and harbors improvements should be taken up and considered individually. In recent years the practice has grown up of voting lump sums and allowing the army engineers to determine how the money should be apportioned.

Says Roads Ignore Canals

Mr. Burton sought to disprove the arguments of so many champions of river improvement that the development of inland waterways decreases mail transportation rates. He said the rail lines pay little attention to that sort of competition in making their rates.

"Why the Sam Hill, then," asked Mr. Newton (Minn.) "has the opening of the Mississippi barge line resulted in the railroads dropping the rate from St. Paul to St. Louis to $1.06, while the rail rate to Kansas City, 86 miles nearer, but not on the Mississippi, is held at $1.86?"

Approve Department Funds

Appropriations totaling $17,073,121 for the department of justice, including the judiciary and $9,448,736 for the state department for the coming fiscal year are recommended in a bill reported Tuesday by the house appropriations committee. The amount proposed for the department of justice expenses is $14,268 less than the total appropriated for the current year and $1,457,925 less than budget estimates while the state department bill would be $1,457,925 less than budget estimates while the sum

BLAINE TO PERMIT SPEECH IN CAPITOL BY KATE O'HARE

Lieutenant Governor Conings will introduce the speaker.

Nation Will Soon Achieve the Objects For Which It Fought Declares Ex-President Wilson

CHICAGO, Ill.—Woodrow Wilson has declined to discuss current political issues in response to an invitation to do so sent by Palmer D. Edmunds, past commander of a local post of the American Legion and chairman of the Service Men's organization of the regular democratic organization. The former president in replying to Mr. Edmunds, however, makes the declaration of his belief "that we shall very soon indeed wipe away the ugly record we made in failing to fulfill the objects for which our gallant men fought."

"Certainly service men above all others are qualified to express their devotion of the principles we believe in," says the letter to Mr. Edmunds. "It was for these very principles that they offered their lives. For my own part I believe those principles to be in themselves so powerful that no political blindness or iniquity can defeat their triumph. I believe that triumph to be immediately at hand and that we shall very soon indeed wipe away the ugly record we made in failing to fulfill the objects for which our gallant comrades fought."

BATTLE 19 HOURS TO SAVE CRAZED WIFE IN TREETOP

Threatens to Throw Herself to Ground if Attempts are Made to Rescue Her

SCAFFOLD BUILT AND WOMAN IS BOUND AND BROUGHT DOWN

Firemen, Police and Army and Navy Officers Join in Rescue

WASHINGTON, D. C.—From a birdlike perch in the top of a tall tree overlooking a ravine seven feet deep, a woman inmate of St. Elizabeth hospital defied rescuers for nineteen hours Monday night and Tuesday, being finally rescued in the afternoon after a scaffold had been erected from which hospital attendants and police could operate.

Hospital attendants, police, firemen and officers of the army and navy participated in the unusual effort to rescue the woman, Mrs. Annie Lymbropeles, who, scantily clad and barefooted, escaped from the hospital about 6 o'clock Sunday evening and climbed into the tall branches of a tree in the hospital yard.

Throughout the night and until after noon Tuesday the woman fought capture, and threatened at intervals to leap into the deep ravine if any one dared to approach her. Not until a fifty foot scaffold had been erected and a fire department ladder extended from the scaffold platform to the top of the tree was the woman rescued. The removal then was effected with great difficulty, the patient struggling furiously with her captors, who roped her feet together and bound her with a larva before they could lower her to safety.

Before the scaffold was erected the fire department had placed beneath the tree and over the dangerous ravine several wire fire nets, to catch the woman in case she should execute her threat to jump.

All forms of strategy failed to move her during the nineteen hour ordeal. Even the stratagem of having her husband bring her baby to the foot of the tree and appeal for the baby's sake that she come down, failed. The baby, the woman shouted, was not hers. It did not wear that kind of a hat, she insisted.

Doesn't Recognize Her Baby

"You can't fool me," she said. The baby, a 15-month-old boy, looked gleefully upward, apparently enjoying the situation.

The woman previously had disowned her husband, but she recognized him when he brought the baby Tuesday morning. Her demand for a big plate of ice cream was complied with in vain. She made a hundred promises to descend, only to break them all.

Throughout the night and all Tuesday morning she kept up a continuous haranguing concerning her baby, her family, her husband and her past life, most of which she declared, had been full of trouble.

After her rescue the woman was taken in charge by nurses of the hospital and was carried back to her ward in a state of frenzy.

DECLARES BILL IS INTENDED TO DECEIVE PUBLIC

Does Not Meet Issue Raised in Message to Special Session Says Governor in Veto Message

OPENS INCOME TAX RETURNS TO OFFICIALS FOR INVESTIGATION

Claims Substitute Bill Further Limits Powers of Governor to Enforce Law

MADISON, Wis.—The special session of the Wisconsin legislature adjourned since die Tuesday after hearing the veto message of Governor J. J. Blaine, disapproving of the certain substitute amendment to the Dahl bill, which would have repealed the secrecy clause to the income tax law.

Three members were present in each house when the session was called to order. The proceedings were perfunctory in both houses with agreement that no attempt would be made to reopen consideration of any questions.

Evaded Direct Vote

"The bill as passed does not meet the issue presented by my message asking for the repeal of the secrecy clause of the income tax law in any respect," Governor Blaine stated in his message to the legislators. He said that in each house substitute amendments to the administration bill calling for repeal, had been adopted "and in this way a direct vote was evaded."

"The crimes against the state that have been committed in secret under the secrecy clause of the income tax act remain secret," the governor declared. "The taxing officers are still compelled by law to shield the crooked tax-dodger and profiteer."

Limits Governor's Pardon

Governor Blaine said that he accepted the interpretation of the statutes given by Attorney General William J. Morgan, that income returns were available to the governor despite the secrecy clause, but said that "in the light of that opinion, instead of broadening the power of the governor, that he may enforce the law, the bill restricts and limits his power."

"It does more than that," the governor asserted. "It threatens the executive, as it does the tax officials."

PUSSYFOOT COMES TO TALK ON DRY QUESTION HERE

Agent Says He Will Give Two Talks in Churches Thursday Night

"The question most asked," said Wm. E. Hall of Westerville, Ohio, who was in La Crosse today completing plans for the appearance of "Pussyfoot" Johnson, world renowned reformer, who has just returned from India and who will speak at the Calumet street M. E. church at 7:15 Thursday night and at the First Congregational church at 8:15. "How did Pussyfoot acquire that name?"

Under the Roosevelt administration Johnson was appointed a special officer of the government for the suppression of the illicit liquor traffic on the Indian reservations and elsewhere. Soon after his appointment he became recognized as a terror by the liquor violators. His easy, quiet way of slipping about from place to place and of causing evidence was his title. He had conducted a most successful cleanup in a western town and announced to the public through the press that he was leaving for another city one hundred miles distant. When the bootleggers believed he had left town they opened up again and staged a celebration. This time, however, they were wrong. Johnson, however, swooped back into town and in a short time made arrests by the wholesale. From that day on it was "Pussyfoot."

ACTORS' OWL CLUB IN CHICAGO TURNED INTO A BOOKSTORE

Chorus Girls Come to Buy Literature Where Once They Bought Drinks

CHICAGO, Ill.—Lights that burned until 1 a. m. in a famous bar on Chicago's Randolph street Blauke are burning again at night, but bar, mirrors and bottles have been replaced by shelves of books and theatrical folk are buying literature where they once bought drinks.

An owl club of actors, poets, writers and newspapermen meets nightly in the rejuvenated saloon whose doors again swing wide until long after midnight.

The old-fashioned chorus girl whose friend wouldn't buy her a book "because she already has one," apparently has disappeared, for the most regular customers are drawn from the nearby theaters. Chorus girls, the book-sellers say, specialize in three kinds of literature—books on fortune telling, the better class translations of the higher drama, and neurotic fiction. After midnight supper following the show the girls drop in with their supper hosts, select a book or two and the host pays the bill.

WOMEN ARE ACTIVE IN CITY ELECTIONS IN IOWA MONDAY

Women Named Mayors; Defeat Sunday Movies in Towns and Out Pool Hall

DES MOINES, Ia.—By The Associated Press.—Activity of women in the political affairs of Iowa towns and cities at Monday's elections, is believed to have brought about election of two of their number as mayor, victory to candidates they endorsed in other towns, the defeat of Sunday motion pictures at Ames and New Sharon and the routing of the town's pool hall at New Market.

Women candidates for mayor were elected at St. Charles and Chalmers. Voters at Charlotte, Mount Vernon and Lenox defeated women candidates for mayor.

Women were elected to the city council in several of Iowa towns and cities. Bachelors threatened with a boycott by girls unless they voted for the girls' mothers at the election at Charlotte, apparently ignored the ultimatum. The women candidates were all defeated.

Eight women and four men are on the jury. Criticism which followed the first two juries to be locked up here had caused county officials to make arrangements for partitioning off the jury-room and heavy curtains and high screens were available for the Tossine jury.

MAKE RESERVATIONS FOR AUTO BANQUET BY TEN WEDNESDAY

Large Attendance Promised at Big Annual Feed of Local Club

La Crosse autoists are displaying great interest in plans for the banquet of the La Crosse Auto Club of Western Wisconsin, to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night at 6:30. Reservations for plates should be made with Secretary Seymour Meisler by 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Any autoist may attend the banquet and enjoy the program which will follow.

The La Crosse Auto Club is planning a season of great activity and will work effectively this year for road improvements and other benefits to autoists.

P. A. Cannon of Madison, head of the Good Roads association of Wisconsin and R. W. Davis of Bangor, chairman of the county board, will be the principal speakers at the banquet Wednesday night.

For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward. Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion.

Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

The consistent use of Kellogg's Bran will clean up a pimply skin and purify the blood. Kellogg's Bran, eaten regularly, prevents a bad breath from the stomach and intestines.

P. S. By the way, it's a happy-health habit to keep Kellogg's Bran on the dining table all the time! Sprinkle it on your food. Your grocer has it.

For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward. Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion.

A beauty secret 3,000 years old

The use of palm and olive oils to keep the skin fresh and smooth is nothing new, but a secret known to pretty girls as far back as Cleopatra.

Her Palmolive came in skins and jars, and she had to do her own mixing. But the beautifying cleanser she achieved was the inspiration of the mild, soothing blend science produces today.

Take a lesson from Cleopatra, who kept her youthful beauty long after girlhood's days had passed. She used cosmetics to embellish and enhance her charm, just as women do today. But the foundation was a skin thoroughly and healthfully cleansed from all clogging and dangerous accumulations.

Soothes and beautifies

Palmolive is blended from the same palm and olive oils Cleopatra used—they are the mildest, most soothing ingredients science has been able to discover.

The scientific combination of these rare oils produces a smooth, creamy, lotion-like lather. Palmolive soothes and beautifies while it cleanses. It keeps the skin of the face and body beautifully soft and smooth.

The importance of thorough cleansing

It is absolutely essential to complexion beauty to wash your face thoroughly once a day. Palmolive makes this cleansing doubly beneficial by its mildness.

The profuse, creamy lather penetrates each tiny pore, removing the deposits of dirt, oil and perspiration which cause clogging and enlargement.

Such cleansing is the secret of fresh, smooth skins, as results prove. It stimulates circulation, keeps the texture fine, smooth and youthful.

The woman who fears that washing will age her skin has used the wrong soap. She will change her mind once she tries Palmolive.

Don't neglect the body

Care of the complexion only begins with the face. Your neck is just as noticeable for beauty or the lack of it, arms and shoulders should be kept white and smooth.

Use Palmolive for bathing and these results are accomplished. It does for your body what it does for the face.

If this seems extravagance, remember the modest price. The firm, long wearing cake of generous size costs but ten cents.

Our price secret

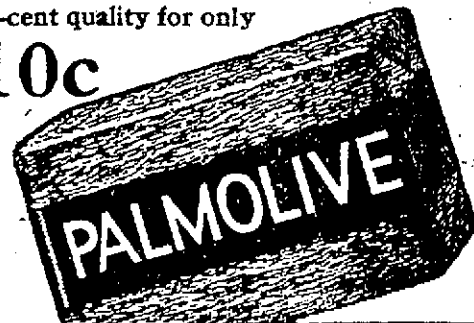

If Palmolive were made in small quantities it would be a very expensive soap. Palm and Olive oils are most costly soap ingredients, and come from overseas.

But the popularity which requires enormous production has reduced the price to that of ordinary soaps. The Palmolive factories work day and night, the rare oils are imported in such vast volume that the manufacturing cost is reduced.

Thus Palmolive, priced according to quality, would cost at least 25 cents, is yours for a modest 10 cents. You can afford this greatest of all luxuries for every toilet purpose.

Volume and efficiency produce 25-cent quality for only

WELCOME SIGNS FOR AUTOISTS ENTERING THE CITY ARE URGED

Interesting Meeting of Bureau
Held on Monday Evening

The stores of La Crosse will be closed from noon until 3 p. m. Good Friday, according to a motion passed Monday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the Merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. The action was taken in response to a communication from the Knights of Columbus.

A report of the work done by the special committee in charge of the spring opening was given by Chairman Krause. The report indicated similar events would mark the incoming seasons in the future. In connection with this report a communication from the Western Wisconsin Teachers' association was read, thanking the merchants for their courtesy in decorating the stage at the Normal school for the meeting and in distributing flowers the opening night of the convention. The communication stated that the various courtesies extended by the merchants had done much to make the meeting most enjoyable.

There being but two meetings remaining in the year's program it was voted to hold the next meeting on the north side as a mark of special courtesy to the merchants in that section of the city.

Welcome Signs Out

Every highway leading to La Crosse will have signs welcoming automobilists to the city. If present plans of the bureau materialize, a special committee was appointed to go into the matter thoroughly and to devise ways and means for this form of advertising. It was pointed out that almost at the very doorway to the city there were signs indicating that the road led to another city, but nothing to indicate that the same road led to La Crosse.

The matter of a general closing of all stores on Saturday evenings was freely discussed and it was decided to get the views of the merchants in general by means of a questionnaire. It was pointed out that retail enterprises from other cities were sending their representatives into La Crosse to take orders from samples, and means whereby this practice may be curtailed were discussed.

The meetings of the merchants' bureau are getting more and more interesting, and everyone interested in retailing, whether employer or employee, should attend them.

Many more would be in the movies if they and the fact to do it.

Now you can get yeast the way you want it

For the first time you can get a pure whole yeast in agreeable and convenient tablet form

Of surpassing interest to you thousands of men and women who understand the remarkable health-building properties of yeast is the knowledge that you can now get yeast the way you want it.

Ever since the therapeutic value of yeast was definitely determined by the world's leading scientists, there has been an insistent demand for a pure whole yeast of high vitamin potency:

- that would keep;
- that would be easy and agreeable to take;
- that could be conveniently carried about in the pocket, and, finally;
- that would not form gas nor cause flatulency nor belching.

Why millions will prefer this new yeast

In Yeast Foam Tablets these demands have been met.

No longer need you eat large quantities of yeast in order to get its tonic value, for in this new yeast you have concentration.

No longer need you take so-called "vitamin" preparations mixed with quick acting drugs in order to get temporary effects; for in this new tablet there is nothing but yeast, the richest source of the tonic vitamin; and each lot of Yeast Foam Tablets is tested to insure high, uniform vitamin potency.

Yeast Foam Tablets a food— not a medicine

Yeast has within itself the amazing therapeutic element, vitamin, the corrective properties of which are more astounding than any drug or medicine ever discovered.

If you wish to take drugs or medicines do so on the advice of your physician.

If you wish to take a supplementary food, for its recognized action in toning up the whole body, take pure, whole, concentrated yeast—Yeast Foam Tablets.

They are made by the world's largest manufacturers of dry yeast—the makers for 45 years of the famous baking yeasts, Yeast Foam and Magic Yeast.

What this new yeast does

"Foods which lack vitamin will not maintain health," says a noted medical authority, "and many foods which originally contained this element reach our table with all vitamin eliminated, due to various processes such as refining, preserving and purifying."

The vitamin thus eliminated is restored through the addition to your regular food of Yeast Foam Tablets.

They stimulate the appetite, aid digestion and enable the body to convert food into firm, healthy tissue.

Without vitamin you can neither eat enough food nor can you get the necessary nourishment from the food you do eat; hence you are often weak, nervous, exhausted and generally run down.

What to take Yeast Foam Tablets for

For that "vague ill health" commonly known as a run-down condition, and all its distressing symptoms such as sluggishness, anaemia, failing strength and endurance, lost appetite and malnutrition you will find nothing more efficacious than a short treatment of Yeast Foam Tablets. They are sold by all druggists.

Extraordinary advantages of Yeast Foam Tablets

- The only pure whole yeast in easy-to-take tablet form.
- They contain no drugs or other ingredients.
- They do not form gas nor cause belching.
- They are the only pure whole yeast suitable for children; they do not cause fermentation.
- Each lot is tested to insure high and uniform vitamin potency.

BREAK GROUND FOR MEMORIAL TO UNION GETTYSBURG LEADER

Elaborate Program Marks Ceremonies in Washington Botanical Gardens

WASHINGTON.—Accompanied by elaborate ceremonies, ground was broken in the national botanical gardens just west of the capital Tuesday for the memorial to Major General Meade, the union leader at the battle of Gettysburg.

The program for the exercises had Secretary Weeks listed as the presiding officer and called for the turning of the first earth by President Harding, using the spade employed in breaking ground for the Lincoln and Arlington memorials. The only addresses included on the program were by Governor Sproul of Pennsylvania, which state is presenting the memorial to the federal government, and Lieut.-General Nelson A. Miles, George G. Meade, grandson of the union leader, and George Gordon Meade, Jr., great grandson of the general, were on the program for a prominent part in the ceremonies.

INSURANCE FIRMS SHOULD OBSERVE ELEVATOR CODE

MADISON, Wis.—The industrial commission Tuesday advised insurance companies that elevator inspections made by them would be accepted only if the companies comply with conditions laid down in the state elevator code.

It was pointed out that one of these conditions is that insurance companies must use reasonable diligence to secure compliance with the state elevator code by their policy holders. Further, within 14 days from the date of inspection a detailed report must be filed with the commission setting forth in plain English the elevator fails to comply with the state code.

The commission reports that many companies have failed to make their own inspections of elevators. Special attention is said to be given to the elevator situation because of the large number of accidents.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or troubles you

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to neutralize the acid. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then, thereby avoiding serious complications.

POLICE SHUT OFF SOURCE OF LIQUOR SUPPLY IN RACINE

RACINE, Wis.—In a raid on a residence in Herick avenue which netted two stills with a capacity of four gallons of moonshine daily, the police believe they have crippled the supply of alcoholic beverage which was being sold to soft drink establishments in the city. The raid, who lives alone with his father, John Delaunoy, declared the parent had gone to Waterloo, Iowa, to marry.

TRUCKS OPERATING ON STATE HIGHWAYS MUST BE MARKED

Must Display Figures Showing Weight, Load and Carrying Capacity

MADISON.—The state law requiring trucks driving on Wisconsin highways to be marked with the weight, advertised load and carrying capacity, apply to those operating entirely within the incorporated limits of a city. J. H. Messerschmidt, assistant attorney general held Tuesday in an opinion to L. A. Gordon, assistant secretary of state.

Mr. Messerschmidt said that the section of the statutes requiring all trucks driving on highways to be marked was sufficiently broad to include those run within cities.

Under the state law highways are classified and only those trucks which have a capacity with load of less than 12 tons can operate on the Class A highways, and those with a carrying capacity of less than seven tons can operate on the Class B roads.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo. For this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all at prices. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup of water with a little warm water is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.

PAIN GONE! RUB SORE, RHEUMATIC ACHING JOINTS

Stop "dealing" rheumatism. It's pain only. St. Jacobs Oil will stop any pain, and not one rheumatic cure in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil right on the tender spot—and by the time you say Jack Robin—out comes the rheumatic pain—out distress. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints, and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia.

Limber up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest St. Jacobs Oil from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

JAKE SCHAEFER WINS FIRST BLOCK

NEW CHAMPION HAS LEAD AFTER FIRST EVENING'S PLAY

Champion Rounds Out Count With Unfinished Run; Score is 500 to 166

CHICAGO, Ill.—Jake Schaefer, world's champion 18.2 billiardist, will have an opportunity to increase his lead Tuesday night in the 34-point match he established Monday night over Willie Hoppe, former champion, when he won the first block of their 1,500-point three-night match, 500 to 166, rounding out his 15th century with an unfinished run of 24. Schaefer left the balls nicely grouped at the head of the table for his opening shot Tuesday night.

Hoppe was in his new role of challenger and Schaefer displayed billiard skills that ran virtually the gamut of the game's possibilities. Hoppe, with his out-time delicate stroke, was the master of smooth running. His masses, although at times hesitated, were executed with a remarkable precision and only infrequently was he forced to table length drives.

Champ Makes Hard Shots

The young champion almost invariably had difficulty in getting the balls together and gave a great display of hard shot making. On his eighth high run, 252, in the fourth inning Schaefer's first eleven shots were of the extremely difficult type and table length caroms predominated.

Except for the possibilities of Schaefer's opening play Tuesday night, the game so far might be regarded as virtually even, the 34-point difference in strings not being regarded as a great figure.

Honors to Hoppe

Without the champion's uncompleted inning, the honors Monday night were the former champion's. Hoppe had the high run, 230 against Schaefer's 252 and the best average, 17.9 as against Schaefer's 50. Hoppe counted in every inning, although the first and eighth showed only two and the ninth a one. Schaefer registered a blank in the first after he had won the bank and missed the opening shot and failed to count again in the third. In the ninth inning he counted only one.

HUEBNER-APPLEMAN WIN MONDAY GAMES

AL SCHREINER AND ART KAULFUSS WIN SEASON PASSES TO BALL GAMES

Nelson Baseball Club to Award Opening Game Passes to Seven Other Contestants Who Submitted Answers

"MANY are called but few shall be chosen." Such is the lot of a majority of those who tendered solutions to the Tribune and Leader-Press' baseball problem, for of the twenty odd replies to the puzzle, but two were "chosen." The rewards are season passes to all games played by the Nelson Clothing company baseball team.

Award Two Season Passes
Upon careful perusal of the answers it was found that season passes could only be awarded to two contestants. Al Schreiner, bookkeeper at S&H cigar store, and Art Kaulfuss, of the board of public works, city hall. The above mentioned were the only two who endeavored to comply with all requirements in the problem, others in most every case utterly disregarded the provision that "eight runners apparently crossed the plate."

So to Al Schreiner and Art Kaulfuss are awarded season passes to Nelson games at Copeland park. They may be secured by calling at the office of the sporting editor, Tribune.

To Lester Anderson, 2028 Prospect street, goes the credit of being the first man on the job with a solution of the problem, closely followed by Donald R. Anderson, 1210 South Fifth street. Both were lined up in the Tribune office before the sporting editor appeared on the scene.

Others Get Singles

But all is not lost for seven others who labored industriously in an effort to solve the problem. Their solutions exhibited a degree of accuracy which merits some reward. To this end the Nelson baseball management has generously consented to issue passes to the opening game with the Peerless Chinos to these seven contestants. They are: Lester Anderson, Donald Anderson, Hazel Curry, 1615 Prospect street; George Skaff, 218 Vine A. D. Garrow, 616 King street; Otto Melner, 1408 Pawwell; and Mrs. Gertrude Long, 710 St. James street.

More and Better Light

FOR more than 30 years the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been a big refiner of kerosene oil.

During all this time there has been a steady improvement in the quality of its product. This improvement has been more marked in the past ten or fifteen years during which time the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has developed methods of manufacturing to eliminate the danger of lamp explosions.

While the kerosene has been improved the devices for using it have remained unchanged.

Recognizing the fact that the users of Perfection Kerosene were unable to get a maximum service from the oil they burned, and realizing that the failure was due not to the oil but to the devices, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) set its experts to work to find a better burner and a more efficient chimney.

These men, working with the manufacturers of burners and chimneys, have succeeded in developing devices which increased largely the efficiency of the oil.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does not sell lamps. But it believes that the users of lamps should be informed as to how to get the best results from the kerosene they use.

To accomplish this result this Company is distributing sixty thousand of the new burners and chimneys to dealers handling kerosene that they may demonstrate to their patrons how to get the most light from Perfection Kerosene by using appliances correctly designed.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has arranged with leading chimney manufacturers to stamp chimneys made in accordance with the design and specifications with the following trade-mark:

This is but one of the many ways in which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) seeks to increase the efficiency of the service it is rendering the people of the territory it serves.

DURANT

Just a Real GOOD Car PERFORMANCE

During the recent big snowstorm in Wisconsin (the worst in the history of the state), when railroad trains were stalled for days, telegraph and telephone lines were down, and traffic and communication of every kind lied up, a Durant-Four Cylinder Car started from Milwaukee to Green Bay, carrying newspaper representatives of The Milwaukee Journal. They wanted to obtain the story and photographs of the damage done by the big storm.

This car battled through the ice and snow covered roads for twenty-six hours, traveling through a devastated district, said by everyone to be impassable. But a Durant performed this feat, and returned to Milwaukee, without damage to the car or its occupants in any way.

Immediately upon its return, it was started on a non-stop run. Day and night it continued, piling up a total of over 6500 miles before we turned off the switch. This means that the car ran more miles during this test than most cars make in an entire year.

PORTAGE OFFICIALS SEARCH FOR MISSING WIFE AND DAUGHTER

Farmers Brings Woman and Girl to Town and Nothing is Seen of them Since

PORTAGE, Wis.—Mystery continues to surround the unexplained disappearance of Mrs. George Branton, wife of a young farmer living near here, and her 11-year-old daughter, who have been missing since Wednesday of last week. County officials Tuesday said that they had been unable to find a trace of the two who left their home supposedly to visit a dressmaker, and have not been seen since.

Branton, who drove his wife and daughter to Portage last Wednesday, did not concern himself over their failure to return home until Friday evening, when he called to take them back to the farm. Then inquiry showed that they had not visited the dressmaker, and had last been seen Wednesday evening in a local restaurant. At that time Mrs. Branton is reported to have told a waitress
that she intended to take a long ride.
Neighbors say that the family had no troubles that they knew of, and join the husband in discounting any theory that the woman and her daughter ran away from home. Officials say that the woman may be subject to asphyxia, but do not accept this theory.

Inquiry has been made in all surrounding towns, but no one has seen a trace of the two. It is said at the railroad office that no tickets were sold to the woman and her daughter.
Search is continuing.

THE FIRST KNOWN ENGLISHMAN

Implements made by pre-historic man have been found dating back 27,000 years, and perhaps much more, in certain graves on the Somme. In those far-off days, the climate was warm as remains are found of Elephas antiquus, a southern type of elephant which preceded the mammoth. The first-known Englishman, too, was the Pittdown man, so called from a sort of a skull found at Pittdown, in the Sussex
portland, of whom a most unflattering portrait has been made—reconstruction from the skull. "The brain capacity is about equal to the smaller human brain today. The skull is extraordinarily thick. The pittdown man could, and probably did, hunt a rival away. He was probably right-handed." He had no easy existence. One of his foes must have been the subtlety of a fox, and a fiercer and more formidable creature whose bones have been found in Kent's Cavern and elsewhere in that county. How such antagonists were combated by our remote predecessors is told. "To dig a pit would not have been beyond the wit of pre-historic man, and stakes for it would have been sharpened and the points hardened by fire. Such a pit would have been the beginning of the long battle between brain and muscle.
This would have been one way in which pre-historic man obtained the meat that he needed for his food.
He was, of course, as carnivorous as his foe the tiger."

THERE'S A REASON

The fact that accidents occur more frequently at some spots along the road than at others was long regarded as a mere coincidence, but this is not so. There is always a reason.
In order to assist in properly determining the sections of roads to be improved, the Maryland state roads commission, under J. N. Mackall, its chairman and chief engineer, has arranged to have all accidents on the highways reported to it daily. Upon the receipt of each accident report, a numbered colored pin is put in the proper location on a large map of the road system. Fatal accidents are marked with red pins, other accidents with yellow pins. The numbering of the pins, corresponding to index cards, enables one to trace back and find the character of each accident.
By keeping this record and marking the map bad stretches of road on which accidents have been caused by too narrow a width or too much crowd have been disclosed. In some cases the bad sections had not been listed as desirable for immediate improvement. The method, therefore, has proved effective in locating some of the danger spots.

Health Hint: The man who says
nothing doesn't always mean it.

FISH AIDS FIGHT ON YELLOW FEVER IN SOUTH AMERICA

Pacific Coast Countries of Southern Continent Now Free
from Dread Disease

LIMA, Peru.—The Pacific coast of South America is free from yellow fever for the first time in history and a little fish, locally known as "fife," has been the most efficient agent in the battle to rid Peru of the dreaded disease.

The fish, which will have to be scientifically identified in Washington, was found to be the most active destroyer of mosquito larvae. More than 700,000 of them have been distributed by ones, twos and threes in all the water containers in the houses in the Departments of Lambayeque and Tarma. For an ordinary water container of ten or 15 gallons, two or three fish were sufficient.

No food was provided so that the hungry fish would live on the organic matter in the water. Every eight or ten days inspectors visited the houses
to make sure the fish were still living and doing their work.

The final chapter of yellow fever
campaign is being written by Dr.
Henry Hanson of the International Health Board of the Rockefeller Foundation, which is spending large sums to help the government of Peru rid her territory of the dreaded pest.

Seven hundred miles of the coastal section of Peru have been the battleground of the campaign and the estimated number of deaths is 1,500. For months Dr. Hanson and his associates have fought heroically to keep back the advancing lines of the enemy. For at times it was feared that the enemy would spread south to Lima,

the Peruvian capital, and to Guayaquil, Ecuador, but the campaign has resulted in victory for the health workers.

There have been no cases since July, 1921, but the work is still going on as a matter of insurance. Dr.
Hanson has about 25 men working in the coastal region in the south and

"SATURDAY NIGHT"—RIVOLI

Produced with all the careful attention to detail that the public has grown to expect in a Cecil De Mille film, "Saturday Night" at the Rivoli
last night vied with the spectacular Style Show of local merchants for the interest of a crowded audience.
The picture tells the story of two adventures in mis-matched matrimony
—the marriage of a girl of wealth to her chauffeur, and the marriage of a young millionaire to a landless girl.
Where other pictures dealing with "this ancient" theme stop "Saturday Night" is just beginning. It carries the situation through to its logical conclusion and shows the finish that contrary to the traditions of fiction,
generally awaits the effort to mix oil and water. Edith Roberts and Leatrice Joy, as the landless and the rich girl, respectively, and Jack Mower and Conrad Nagel as the chauffeur and the millionaire, have exciting roles to which they do full justice, and the story is placed in excellent and well-perfect settings. A scene in which a train knocks an automobile from a high trestle, and one of a tenement house fire afford bits of highly exciting realism.

CONWAY TEARLE — MAJESTIC

Conway Tearle has brought with him in "The Man of Stone" shown at the Majestic Theater last evening
a breath of the great Arabian desert,
which was thrown on the silver sheet
in all the wealth of color and character that we have learned to associate with tales of that interesting land of mystery and romance.

Specifically, this new spectacle deals with Capt. Neville Deering, D.
S. C. of the British Army, who, bitter by his fiancée Lady Fortescue, accepts active duty in Arabia where the English colonial troops are facing a native insurrection. Naturally, battles, scenes, desert scenes and the inevitable love scenes are here inextricably interwoven.

Conway Tearle's characterization of the officer and lover can be described as a personal achievement. Never for a moment does one lose intense interest in his highly dramatic career, either as the besotted soldier who attempts to drown his sorrow in drink or as the man of honor standing between the old love and the new.

Betty Howe as the Arabian girl who at last wins the hand and heart of the "Englishman," and Martha Mansfield as the third noblewoman are both entitled to honors.

BEAUTIES OF MARINE VEGETATION

Tropical strands rarely present a great wealth of plant life. The rocky shores of New England are richer in such vegetation than most southern coasts, and that says a recent authority, is chiefly owing to the scrubbing effects of the tropical sunshine, which highlights the growth of underwater plants between the tide lines.
But below the surface particularly along the ledges and the coral reefs near the shore, the seaweeds grow luxuriantly and take on many strange and beautiful forms. Some of them have an odd resemblance to objects
that are so familiar with children, and some cannot but suggest to the imagination objects of human invention that can be fully assigned to the use of these mythical creatures with which the fancy and superstition of mankind anciently peopled the depths of the sea. Amongst the more curious plants that are to be found on the ocean bottom off Bermuda and southern Florida, is one the filaments of which are so closely interwoven

as to suggest the head and bristles of a brush. It is called the mermaid's shaving brush. Another, which has a wide flat surface surmounting the stem, is the mermaid's fan. A third plant resembles a growing vine heavily loaded with luscious grapes.

YOUNG TROUT FRY SHOW GOOD GROWTH IN ARTESIAN WATER

Thrive Better than When Reared in River Water Declares Conservation Commissioner

MADISON, Wis.—The young trout at the Bayfield hatchery are now thriving on artesian water, showing signs of better health and more rapid growth than when reared on river water, says O. Webster, conservation commissioner in charge of fisheries, said Tuesday.

A new well, located by the commission on Bayfield Peninsula, is the source of the artesian water, which the future inhabitants of the Wisconsin lakes are finding to furnish such a beneficial environment. Mr. Webster declared that he expected exceptional results from the experiment.

"Since the Bayfield hatchery was established 25 years ago there has always been more or less trouble from the water supply," Mr. Webster said. "This trouble has been caused by the floods from the spring breakers."

"The geological survey of Wisconsin said that the Bayfield Peninsula has a 20 foot head of artesian water, but no one previously had been able to locate it. After considerable study, we decided to drill one well about 200 feet from the hatchery building."

"By drilling 150 feet, we located water which is now flowing about 2,000 barrels a day. The last 20 feet drilled in the brown stone made us one gallon of water for every foot drilled. If it were possible to increase the capacity of the well in this same proportion and the brown stone was of sufficient thickness, we would be able to obtain a water supply on this one site that would be sufficient for our use in the hatchery building."

Public Debate

SMOOTH-UP WEEK

La Crosse, Wis., March 27, 1932.

Editor, Tribune: The article in the editorial column of tonight's paper is very true, not only to the crossing men, but to the street car crossing men. I have had one of them on Main street east of Eleventh, one at Seventh and Jackson, and many more. There is another job at Fifth and King where the pavement has settled over a heating main. This one has been there for several years and doesn't seem to get any better. Jobs like these are very bad on a car and not very good on a driver's nerves. So what is the use of letting them go? There was a had one at Twelfth and Market, and the street car company was notified to raise their tracks to a level with the paving. This was done at once, so if the parties responsible for these bumps have to be told about them before they will take hold and repair them, now is the time to do it.

Another thing of great interest to car owners is the way broken glass lies on the streets and alleys. I think there is an ordinance prohibiting this, but I never hear of anyone being arrested for putting it there. It is a shame for way trash junk and dirt to be scattered through the alleys of the downtown district. Also the water bound brick paving in these alleys. Why not repair such places when they first need it? And dragging the dirt streets right now will do a wonderful lot of good, as they will pack better when they are wet than when dry. This is done with dirt roads in the country with good results. Many of the dirt streets here in La Crosse are so rough right now a person is risking springs and his neck when he drives on them.

I want to suggest a "clean-up, smooth-up week" for this city, and would like to hear from some more citizens that see these things the way I do. See all together—A CITIZEN.
